Aunt Sarah's Tips

- Babies need adult parents.
- Babies don't cement relationships, they stress them.
- Babies don't give unconditional love; they demand it from the adults around them.

More Aunt Sarah...

- To girls: sex won't make him yours and a baby won't make him stay.
- To boys: making a baby doesn't make you a man; being a devoted husband and father might...
- “If it happens, it happens” is no way to start a family. And “I just never really thought about it” isn't either.

And finally....

- Getting pregnant or causing pregnancy, having babies, and starting families are perhaps the most important things we ever do, with generational effects. These major steps need to be thought about carefully, not stumbled into. We think and talk about so many less important things all the time: what's for dinner, March Madness brackets, what movie to see this weekend... Surely the event of when to become a parent, with whom, and under what circumstances deserve at least the same amount of time and attention....
