

GW Health Sciences Research Commons Non-Exclusive Distribution License

Thank you for electing to submit your work to the Health Sciences Research Commons, a digital repository of the GW health sciences communities. By including your work in HSRC, you can:

- ❖ Share your work with colleagues with a unique URL
- ❖ Make it searchable and discoverable via search engines
- ❖ Preserve your scholarship in a permanent digital archive

Your work will be assigned a unique, persistent URL, which will remain available even after you leave GW.

Please read the Health Sciences Research Commons Author Submission agreement below. By sending a copy of your work, you acknowledge and accept the following provisions:

- ❖ You represent that you are the author(s) or copyright owner(s) of the work, and grant to George Washington University's Health Sciences Research Commons the non-exclusive right to reproduce, translate (as defined below), and/or distribute your submission (including the abstract) on the Internet and retain an electronic copy. This non-exclusive right includes, but is not limited to, audio or video formats.
- ❖ Your work will automatically be assigned a Creative Commons Attribution-Non Commercial-No Derivative Works 4.0 license. To review other Creative Commons licenses, go to <http://creativecommons.org>.
- ❖ You agree that the Health Sciences Research Commons may, without changing the content, translate the submission to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation.
- ❖ You represent that the submission is your original work, and that you have the right to grant the rights contained in this license. You also represent that your submission does not, to the best of your knowledge, infringe upon anyone's copyright.
- ❖ If the submission contains material for which you do not hold copyright, you represent that you have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant the GW Health Sciences Research Commons the rights required by this license, and that such third-party owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission.
- ❖ You will be clearly identified with your name(s) as the author(s) or owner(s) of the submission. The George Washington University Health Sciences Research Commons will not make any alteration to your submission, other than as allowed by this license.

- ❖ If the submission is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by an agency or organization other than GWU, you represent that you have fulfilled any right of review or other obligations required by such contact or agreement.

By typing my name, I acknowledge the above provisions:
