February 2016

There is an artistic side in all of us! Whether you draw, sculpt, paint or take awesome photos we invite you to share your talents and participate in Himmelfarb's Annual Art Show. Each year the Himmelfarb Library's first floor transforms into an art gallery displaying the wonderful original works of all our faculty, students and staff members. Our distance faculty and students are also encouraged to submit their work electronically.

We will kick-off the official opening of the 2016 Annual Art Show with a reception on April 7th from 4:00pm-5:30pm. Stop by and enjoy food and refreshments and support the many talents of our students and colleagues. Did you miss last year's Art Show? Go here to view 2015 Art Show Reception).

For information on how to submit works to art show, go to Art Show FAQ.

TIP OF THE MONTH

Ramp Up for Research Day Workshops

Are you working with students on a research project? Encourage them to participate in GW Research Day and attend the Ramp Up for Research Day Workshops sponsored by the Himmelfarb Library. All workshops allow on-campus and distance education students to attend! Sign up here.
